

November Newsletter

Baby Room – This month in the baby room, we will be focusing on colours. We are excited to be doing some bright, colourful activities and messy plays! The first week of November is number confidence week; therefore, we will be focusing on some physical activities such as rolling/ throwing a ball using the '1,2,3 go!' cue. We are very excited for nursery rhyme week as we know the babies love singing at circle time, copying our actions to songs. Road safety week we will be learning that red means stop, and green means go with some fun activities in the garden. And much more!

Toddler Room – This month in toddler room it is all about numbers, nursery rhymes and celebrating being children. We will be concentrating on focused attention during group times and re-enforcing good manners. As always, we will be providing learning opportunities based on your child's interest/ happenings at home, so please keep up the good information sharing using the robins and violets from the key worker board.

Preschool Room – This month in preschool we are focusing on the children's development relevant to school readiness, we have implemented a focus book for the children and a "letter of the week". This week and next we are working on the letter S then the week beginning the 18th we will move onto the letter A. In preschool, we are also learning to recognise our own names and beginning to write them too. We have already made some really good progress with this!

Christmas

We have decided the Christmas stay and play/ party for all rooms to go ahead on the 7th of December as this is the date with the most votes.

We invite the children to be dropped off for a Christmas party at 10:30am to take part in fun party games and snacks, then at 12:00 parents can collect your child and stay to take part in sit down activities and meet Father Christmas.

Please make staff aware whether you can make this date or not as we will staff/buy resources accordingly.

To all year-round parents, we will be closing for Christmas on the 24th of December at 1pm, please let a member of staff know whether your child will be attending on Christmas eve so we can staff accordingly.

Thankyou all for your continued support!
